To Whom It May Concern:

Pilgrim's does not use peanuts, tree nuts or any product made from these items in our Boaz facility. In regard to our further processed products, please note that these are par-fried in soy and/or soy-vegetable blended oils. The process of creating these oils removes the protein and they are no longer considered an allergen.

If you require further information regarding allergens or additional product questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,
