The West Genesee Community

With 4,500 students and 930 employees, West Genesee is a large suburban district that covers 41 square miles west of Syracuse, New York. With the town of Camillus as its center, the district boasts a rigorous academic program for students in grades K-12. It has seven schools: four elementary schools, two middle schools and one high school. The district provides students with a strong academic program in core subjects as well as numerous college-level courses, accelerated courses, distance learning courses, and a variety of electives such as art, music, technology, and business. In 2018, 95% of its high school graduating class earned a Regents diploma.

Outside of academics, the district offers extensive co-curricular and athletic opportunities, boasting nearly 75 state titles in sports and marching band. The district is known for its high level of parent and community support, with prominent displays of navy blue and gold and the popular Wildcat mascot appearing throughout the community.

With an active relationship with Syracuse University, West Genesee provides an excellent climate for teaching and learning. It also houses the Syracuse University Teaching Center, which provides direct in-service training and staff development. Please go here for more facts and figures about the district:

From the Board

The West Genesee Board of Education is inviting you to apply for the position of Superintendent of Schools. We are proud of our high-performing district and excited about the opportunity to work with an experienced and enthusiastic educator who shares our vision for helping students attain the knowledge, skills, and attitudes necessary for lifelong learning as well as becoming cooperative, self-directed, productive, and caring citizens.

Over the past two decades, West Genesee has implemented many program improvements to help raise the academic success of our students. With the support of our community, we have also invested in our employees and our infrastructure. In short, we have built a wonderful foundation for learning.

Please consider building on this foundation and applying for the position of Superintendent. We look forward to hearing from you.

Selection Process

All applications and communications should be directed to:
Dr. Jody Manning, District Superintendent & CEO
Onondaga-Cortland-Madison BOCES
P.O. Box 4754
Syracuse, NY 13221
